

Im sitting here in Prevorje

(music of Fools garden Lemon tree)

I'm sitting here in Prevorje

Its just another hot and sunny afternoon

I'm loving my time, got photos to do,

Chatting with my friends and making a few,

But something always happens , and I wander

I'm walking around, don't see any car,

Not going too fast, but maybe too far!

Keep on changing my point of view

But the sun is shining and the sky is blue

And something always happens... and I wander

I wonder how, I question why

Yesterday we looked up at the blue, blue sky

But all that's calling me

Is being wild and free

I turn the pictures up and down

I turn them turn them turn them

All around

But all that I can see

Is just another willow tree.
